Allotment of land to societies

*294. SHRI RAJEEV SHUKLA:
SHRI JANESHWAR MISHRA:

Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it has come to Government's notice that some registered societies are trying to corner Government land by applying under different names with the same Board of Directors;

(b) if so, the Societies identified by DDA alongwith the names of the Board of Directors while ascertaining credential for allotment of the land; and

(c) the action taken by Government in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT (SHRI GHULAM NABI AZAD): (a) to (c) The Delhi Development Authority (DDA) has reported that in some cases out of the 286 cases recommended on 17.2.2003 by the Institutional Allotment Committee (IAC) constituted in DDA, for recommending cases of registered societies for allotment of land, it had come to notice that same office bearers had applied for land for more than one society.

In one such detected case, the General Secretary of two societies, viz., Mangalam Education Society and Govind Dham Education Society, was the same person. The allotment of land in respect of these societies has been rejected by the DDA.

The DDA is scrutinizing other applications of similar type, where the intention is to get public land at concessional rates by a group of persons by floating different Societies. Action in each such case will be taken by DDA on merit.

Allotment of land to NGOs in Delhi

*295. SHRI V. HANUMANTHA RAO: Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Government have given plots of land to various NGOs in Delhi in 2002-03 and 2003-04 for their offices and operational areas;

(b) the rules for allotting land to NGOs in Delhi;

(c) the NGOs who have been allotted land in Delhi during the last two financial years;

(d) whether any enquiry has been conducted into their activities and requirements; and

(e) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT (SHRI GHULAM NABI AZAD): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) Land is allotted by the Land & Development Office (L&DO) and Delhi Development Authority (DDA) to various Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs), registered under the Societies Registration Act for the purpose of schools, colleges, hospitals, other social, cultural or charitable purposes. Applications for allotment of land are required to be submitted by the organizations in the prescribed format along with
